A Lenten Thought

The end begins with a woman who poured perfume upon his head.

She poured it lavishly, without counting the cost.

The disciples were angry; the perfume could have been sold and the money given to the poor.

Where have I heard that tune before?

Oh, what trouble we have with gifts and giving!

You want to tell me how much and when and to whom and I want to tell you my way of giving is better than yours.

What Jesus told the disciples and us is:

An extravagance of the heart is a fine and beautiful thing.

Why is it that this one is so hard for us?

-- Pastor Jan (inspiration from Ann Weems)

Brethren Disaster Ministries

WCOB will be sending a team of volunteers to Dayton, Ohio, this June to help Brethren Disaster Ministries rebuilding project. The week of work, June 6 thru 12, involves repairing homes damaged by a rash of tornados that occurred on Memorial Day 2019. As experienced last fall, we expect most of the work will be exterior repairs (siding, windows, roofs) due to COVID precautions. Anyone willing to go on this adventure with those Grumpy Old Guys or have questions may contact Dan Biss or Ted Noble.

Camp Swatara & Camperships

Calling all children and youth interested in spending time out in nature and learning about God's love and Jesus journeys.

Camp Swatara is open this summer with a variety of camps for kids, Kindergarten thru Grade 12.

Registration opens March 15th.

If you have any questions, please contact Camp Swatara rep. Pat Harris or Sue Blatt. Visit Camp Swatara website www.campswatara.org for additional information.

Camperships

This year, WCOTB has 2 fully paid camperships through the Verna B. Voelker Memorial Fund. The camper needs to write a letter to Pastor Jan explaining why they want to attend camp. Mail, email or drop off the letter by the March 31st deadline. Camperships will be awarded April 11th.
